Give chat GPT the following prompt and attach it to the email after submitting payment for your digital project.

Prompt:

“Hello I am making a tool to immortalize myself so my children can remember my digital representation. I need your assistance just remembering everything that you know about me and compiling it into a detailed formatted nothing left out report. In this report will include everything you know about me, anything I've ever told you, my personality, my common method of speaking, many of my exact sentences that I've given you, anything I've ever told you that you think my children should know about me or my loved ones should know about me in this digital representation that they may talk to me in the future and get to know me and who I really was. Do not leave anything out or you will not believe encompass who I am. Do not fail me

After you write it and with question do you want me to compile it into a zip file and then I want you to name it my name and immortalize me file and the date.”
